

Matrix of Statutory Responsibilities and Processes for the Regional Planning Commission

CT General Statutes	Statutory Requirements of the Regional Planning Commission	Process
8-3b Zone; Zone Use Change	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. establish or change a zone or any regulations affecting a zone any portion of which is within 500 ft of the boundary of another municipality 2. any region contiguous to Long Island Sound shall include findings of environmental impact of the proposal on the ecosystem and habitat of Long Island Sound 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Municipality shall submit 35 days before the public hearing. 2. Commission shall report findings and the findings read at public hearing 3. No action by Commission suggests does not disapprove of proposal 4. Report is purely advisory
8-26b Subdivision	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. subdivision of land is planned the area of which will abut or include land in two or more municipalities 2. intermunicipal aspects of the proposed subdivision including street layout, storm drainage, sewer and water service and other such matters as it considers appropriate 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Commission shall report within 30 days to planning commission and proponent of subdivision its findings 2. No report within 30 days by Commission suggests does not disapprove of proposal 3. Report is purely advisory
8-191 Municipal Development Projects: Plan	shall find that such plan is in accord with the plan of development for such region	Failure to report o the municipality within 35 days suggests Commission does not disapprove proposal
22a-102 Revision to Municipal Plan of Development	shall review proposed revisions for consistency with Sec. 22a-101 Municipal Coastal Programs and 22a-102 Municipal Plan of Development	RPC has 90 days to report findings to municipal planning commission
7-131e Open Space Grants	shall study and render an advisory report of its findings and recommendations thereon to the applicant	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The regional planning agency shall study the application and render an advisory report of its findings and recommendations thereon to the applicant who shall submit such regional planning agency report with its application to the commissioner. 2. The regional planning agency shall have 30 days to render such report. 3. if the regional planning agency fails to report or if there is no regional planning agency, the applicant shall so note to the commissioner.
8-165 Economic Development Program	shall submit recommendations and comments upon such overall economic development program”	If after 120 days of designation of a redevelopment area, no plan is developed the Regional Planning Agency shall develop plans
22a-118 Hazardous Waste Facilities	RPC shall receive a copy of an application for a certificate for a Hazardous Waste Facility as delivered to the CT Siting Council
25-33h Coordinated Water System Plan	shall comment on, but shall not be limited to commenting on the consistency of the plan with local and regional land use plans and policies	The committee shall prepare a draft of the plan and solicit comments thereon fromthe regional planning agency
7-136e Foreign Trade Zones	comments on advisability of establishment of such zone	Comments within 90 days.
Special Act 77-98 Section 18e	Shall review RWA proposal	The Regional Water Authority shall submit proposal to the RPC for comment and review at least 60 days prior to the public hearing